

ABOUT MY SELF

My name is Nirmal Kumar, also known as NirmalKP.

I am a calm and introverted person who enjoys learning and building things on the internet. I can write simple and clear content and I like creating ideas that are helpful and meaningful.

I am currently learning English , Japanese , Portuguese , Spanish , Indonesian , Vietnamese and improving my communication skills. I want to learn more about web development, artificial intelligence, and language learning. My goal is to build useful digital projects and keep growing through self-learning and real practice

Personality

I am a quiet, calm, and introverted person. I prefer peaceful conversations over loud or crowded environments. I think deeply before speaking and I value honesty, kindness, and simplicity.

I am naturally curious and enjoy learning at my own pace. I don't like fake behavior or unnecessary drama. I respect different cultures and people, and I believe that being kind and understanding is more important than being perfect.
